Neighbourhood Life Update:

Last weekend Home Missions and World Missions sent a team of videographers to capture the testimonies of those involved in Neighbourhood Life. The stories of transformation in our neighbourhoods were inspiring, and it was very good of the participants to volunteer their stories. This weekend we gather with others from around the province for our annual retreat in Camp Nakanum to share more of what God is up to in our neighbourhoods. In conjunction with our neighbourhood training opportunities in Lacombe, other cities such as Red Deer, Leduc and St. Albert have invited Neighbourhood Life to the table. A few churches such as Terrace CRC and Gateway CRC (Abbotsford) have also booked training dates. Our new book, "Neighbouring for Life" is now available on amazon and lulu websites. We also are looking forward to the opening of our 'Good Neighbour Coffee-House' which will give Neighbourhood Life and Good Neighbour Coffee a greater presence in the community of Lacombe. For more information on the progress of Neighbourhood Life, call/text 403-505-9897 or contact via email- rickabma@gmail.com.
