Neighbourhood Life Update: During the past couple months, block party season has kept NL busy. To have the privilege to be involved with neighbours in their neighbourhoods has been a wonderful experience. If you would like to explore how to begin in your neighbourhood, just ask! Recently we were involved with 5 different neighbourhood initiatives in which there seemed to be a consensus regarding how good it was and why we haven't done this earlier. We also had time to learn with Jim Diers, a neighbourhood activist from Seattle who flew in to join us. He in turn helped us open the doors to Lacombe's Good Neighbour CoffeeHouse and its support for NL. Finally, we have added to the NL tool kit by unveiling our Espresso Trike which works very well in connecting neighbours. www.rickabma.com 403-505-9897

Pastor's Note/Blog:

What I Learned at the Millennials Seminar

As you may know, I recently had the privilege of attending a seminar at Calvin College (Grand Rapids, MI) called, "Ministry to and With Millennials." So, what did I learn at this seminar? We addressed ministry to and with Millennials (Emerging Adults [EAs]) via the following topics: social realities, discipleship, preaching and worship. This seminar was led by the chaplains of Calvin College, and they did a fine job addressing each topic. Here are a few highlights. In terms of the social realities of EAs, we learned that they are interconnected, technological, global and cause-oriented. In terms of discipleship, we learned that mentoring is the ideal way to disciple EAs. They don't want leaders telling them what to do; rather, they want them to come alongside and show them the way of Christ. In terms of preaching, we were encouraged to spend considerable time preparing the Sunday sermon, so we can counter the various competing narratives of their lives and speak about the one true narrative: the gospel of Jesus Christ. And in regards to worship, we learned that Millennials prefer variety in communal worship. Not just one form of worship. Some EAs like an informal contemporary style of worship. Others prefer a more traditional reflective-type of service. So we as a local church should offer EAs a varied worship "diet." There is a lot more I could say about this seminar, and I would gladly share more of my learning, if you wish. In the end, I was left feeling hopeful about the next generation. Yes, there is a lot of work to be done in terms of discipling the EAs among us, but happily they are showing up. So, let's work together to mentor them for leadership. And let us learn from them how to reach our needy and broken world for Christ.

Please Note: Our bank has informed us that we need to make all our cheques payable to Wolf Creek Community Church and not to put just down WCCC as there is a business that uses the initials. Thank you!

Check this out! Nineteen new books are now in our library - all for our little people! There are beautifully illustrated picture books and board books by Francis Chan (who knew?), Kathleen Bostrom, Max Lucado and others. We have The Story of Ferdinand the bull who refuses to fight, Halfway Herbert, and The Big Red Tractor and the Little Village. Check out the new titles and take a book home to share with your little one today.

Preschool Sunday School is still looking for volunteers to run some classes for the summer months. Taking a break from the regular schedule is good, but it's important that we continue to connect with the kids. You can volunteer as much or little as you like, and the lesson are prepared in advance and easy to follow. Talk to Ashley Stingel (403-506-7803) if you would like to sign up this summer.

Prayer Request: Please pray for Pastor Leon and his family as they attend a pastoral family spiritual retreat this week at Fairhaven (near Vernon, BC). In addition to resting and playing, this spiritual retreat will involve family counseling, as Pastor Leon and his family seek to discern how God is working in their lives and how he is leading them.

Church Office Notice: Please note that Cassandra will be taking one week off starting June 30.

Camp Rehoboth Volunteers Needed: We will be starting our summer camps soon. God has answered our prayers for more volunteers, but we still need help for the following weeks:

R&R (July 2-7) - Night Watch person.

Adult 1 (July 8-14) - 2 nurses, 4 counsellors.

Adult 2 (July 15-21) - Night Watch, Techie, 20 counsellors.

Independent (July 22-28) - Bible Leader, Techie, 10 counselors.

Youth Week - full, we have all our volunteers!

Please contact camp@rehoboth.ab.ca for more information, or apply online (www.rehoboth.ab.ca/camps)

Pray that our camps go well this summer, that everyone has a great time, stays healthy, we get good weather – but most importantly, that our campers know that God's Promises Never Fail!
