Pastor's Note:

Reflections on the Neighbourhood Life Retreat.

Last weekend I had the privilege of attending a Neighbourhood Life retreat with my family and various members of this church family. I want to thank Pastor Rick and the Mission Team for making this weekend retreat possible. I also want to acknowledge our denomination (The Christian Reformed Church in North America [CRCNA]), who provided some of the funding for this retreat. This was a wonderful time of resting, reflection and renewal. In terms of rest, the schedule was reasonable. There was time for rest. It was a true retreat! In terms of reflection, Pastor Karen Wilk of Edmonton led us through multiple reflections on Luke 10, which is a passage that talks about Jesus sending out the seventy disciples on mission. As we meditated on this gospel story in small groups, it became clear that we also were called to go on mission—to go and dwell among our neighbours and proclaim that the kingdom of God had come near through Jesus. In terms of renewal, I was challenged that my life is too busy. It's time to slow things down a bit, so I can listen better to God and to my neighbors. As you may know, this church has been on a journey this year as we reflect on and learn about how to love our neighbors. I thank God for calling us to this ministry and mission. I believe this is God's will for us, and I encourage you to join Him on mission in your neighbourhood.
