Wolf Creek News

From EduDeo Ministries:

EduDeo Ministries would like to thank Wolf Creek Community Church for your support of members of the Lacombe HANDS Team going to Hato Nuevo in the Dominican Republic. Your ongoing prayers and support have been a great blessing! James and Lori Anderson, and Bernie Kolkman from your church, together with John and Wilma Busaan, Erwin VanHaren, Terry Vandeborn, and Holly Voortman, will be leaving on Friday January 18, and returning January 28. We give thanks for these team members and please pray with us for God's blessings on the whole team as they serve at Colegio Cristiano La Esperanza in Hato Nuevo, the Dominican Republic. We thank the Lord for your desire to transform the lives of children in the Dominican Republic in this important mission work that acts in obedience to Christ's Great Commission to teach His Word to all nations (Matt. 28:18-20).

YFC Annual Comedy & Dessert Night

Featuring Leland Klassen, will be held on Friday February 1, 2013. The event starts at 7:00 p.m. at the Lacombe Memorial Centre. Tickets are $30.00 each or $225.00 for a table of eight. This fundraising event supports youth work in the community. Tickets are available from Marian or Kevin Debree - 782-5278 - or the WCYFC Office at 403 755 7825. Last day for ticket sales will be January 27, 2013.

Pastor's Note: The Bible doesn't say a lot about Jesus's early years. It's not that the Gospel writers weren't concerned about Jesus the child, but I suspect that space and time were limited, so they had to be selective. But interestingly, all four gospel writers include the story of his baptism—that's how important it is! And although each story is similar, they all have their unique take on the baptism story. For example, Matthew includes John's challenge to Jesus. John was baptizing repentant people (those who turned away from their sins). But Jesus was sinless, so why would He need to be baptized? But as Jesus explains, God requires it. Baptism is an important part of discipleship. Furthermore, he didn't want to miss out on God's blessing given through baptism. So how about you? Have you been baptized? If not, I invite you to seriously consider it. After all, God requires it, and who would want to miss out on the blessing of hearing him say to you: "You are my dearly loved child, who brings me great joy"?
